Think big to accomplish your goals. Most people have no idea how powerful their minds really are and most of us don't accomplish anything near what we are capable of. Challenge yourself every minute, attempt different things, explore untraveled paths and then you see the change in yourself achieving unlimited success to whatever you pursue. We undergo repeated chaos in the path of attaining our target, never give up at that moment and channelize your mind to positive thoughts, you are sure to win.

CHASE YOUR DREAMS

We are ready to wrap up our academics this year. Teachers and students are preparing for the forthcoming examinations. So, What better time for some study tips? Space it out: Break up information into small sections, study a section or two of information each day instead of all at once. Tell a tale: It's a superb thought of learning by turning the concepts into a crazy story with your friends, you will never forget it. Write it out: Recopy your notes and read it aloud. Plan your study time: Plan out the whole week in advance. Take athletic breaks: Study for a fixed time daily and get involved in any of your favorite sports or exercise. Eat healthy: It helps to boost your potential

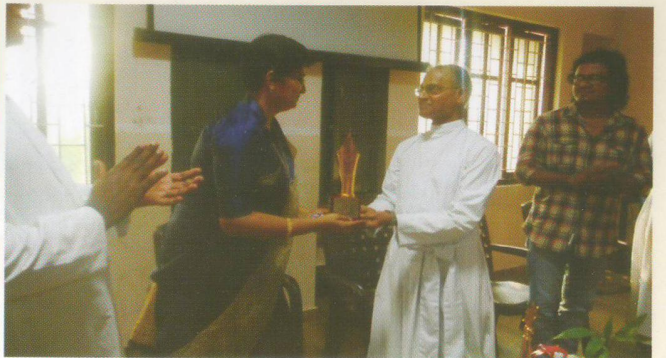

Take control with self: Don't let the anxious thoughts and feelings keep you away from the exams. Self-motivate: Praise yourself of what you have learnt instead of focusing on what you have left to learn. And last but not the least FORGET NOT YOUR PRAYERS AND BLESSINGS
